INSTRUCTION BOOKS FOR THE ORGAN.

W. T. BEST.

THE ART OF ORGAN PLAYING, (Part I.) Practically Illustrated from the first rudiments to the highest difficulties of the Instrument; both in its use as an Accompaniment to the different styles of Church Music, as well as in the various purposes of the employment of the Organ as a Solo Instrument. Price 6s.

THE ART OF ORGAN PLAYING. Part II., price 12s., being Studies for the Pedal, with many illustrations from the works of Bach, and other Organ Composers; shewing how passages of special difficulty are to be played.

The first part of "The Art of Organ Playing" dealt merely with those peculiarities of Touch and Fingering in which the mode of performance on the keyboard of an Organ differs from that of a Pianoforte; but the characteristic of Organ music is, that it demands the simultaneous use of both Hands and Feet; a matter involving a different employment of the Left Hand, which does not play the Bass, as in Pianoforte music, except where the Pedal part ceases for the moment. A proper manner of playing all those passages assigned to the Pedal is as important a study, in its way, as a correct method of Fingering, as applied to a keyed instrument. The present exercises have specially in view that opposed motion of the Left Hand to the Pedal part, which constitutes one of the principal difficulties to be overcome by an Organ-player; as the practice of mere passages for the Pedals, unaccompanied by the use of the Hands, will never enable a student to obtain the requisite facility. The manner of combining the various stops, and employing the different key-boards of an Organ is also taught throughout the work, each study having directions for the use of those registers which are calculated to give it the best effect.

For Contents see Novello's Catalogue, No. 1 and 2, which may be had gratis, or post-free for two stamps.

"The head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God."

"The husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the Church."

"Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the Church, and gave Himself for it; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word; that He might present it to Himself a glorious Church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish."

"The woman is the glory of the man."

CHRIST, we come before Thee
On this happy day;
Thine all priceless blessing
Grant us now we pray;
To this Christian bridegroom,
To this Christian bride,
Be thou ever present,
Lord, and Life, and Guide.

Thou didst take our nature,
As a bride, to be
One with Thee, O Saviour,
Through Eternity;
Thou didst as a Bridegroom,
Wed Thy Church; and still
She reflects Thy glory,
Loving all Thy will.

Grant to Christian bridegrooms
Such true love as Thine;
Grant to brides thus married
Like the Church to shine:
So shall life be gladness,
With Thee at their side;
All its joys and sorrows
In Thee sanctified.

For this first of blessings,
Dowry from above,
Bliss of holy marriage,
Joy of wedded love,
Father, Son, and Spirit,
Unto Thee we raise,
Heart and voice uniting,
Now our thankful praise.
